Dear Ms. Reeves:

I am writing to thank you for your participation as a witness before the Joint Congressional Hearing on Library and Information Services for Literacy, Productivity and Democracy at the White House Conference on Library and Information Services.

The eloquence of your remarks and the effect of your testimony along with that of your fellow witnesses will long be remembered by those in the hearing room and will be of great use to us as we develop legislation for library and information services for the 21st century.

The official hearing record will carry the vibrancy of this hearing for all other Members of Congress to read. I share your concerns that meeting user needs for library and information services be a major consideration in future legislation.

With warm regards,

Ever sincerely,

Claiborne Pell
